Apologies

Last week's newsletter appears to have caused some confusion regarding after school clubs.

There will be after school club on Thursday 9th May but there will be no sports after school club for Years 4,5 and 6 due to the athletics event. Sorry for any confusion caused.

Year 5 Come and Play Halle Concert

All of our Year 5 pupils have spent the year learning to play a stringed instrument and their moment to celebrate this new skill has arrived!

On Tuesday 18th June they will all be going to the Bridgewater Hall to take part in a school based Olympic Concert. The children are currently busy practising for this concert. There will be many other schools in attendance and it is a wonderful celebration of everyone's hard work.

We will be leaving school at 9am and travelling by coach to the Bridgewater Hall. We will return to school around 12.30pm in time for lunch and the afternoon session in school. The event costs £10.00 per child of which £7.00 is for the ticket into the Bridgewater Hall and a £3.00 contribution towards the coach travel. The remaining coach cost will be paid by school. Please can payments please be made by 7th June. Please pay for the trip and give permission for your child to attend via Parent Pay.

150 Acts of Kindness

Every child has received an envelope today with further details of the FODS pledge to complete 150 acts of kindness to celebrate our 150th anniversary.

Please try and help our school achieve this challenge in any way you can. Don't forget to send in photos. Thank you.
