150 Celebrations

Thank you to everyone who has helped to make our week of celebrations such a wonderful success.

The turnout to our open afternoon on Sunday was incredible and so many lovely comments from past pupils, staff and friends made the hard work of putting such an event on so worthwhile.

Whilst the weather hasn't been kind to us, resulting in moving the Maypole inside, we haven't let the rain dampen our spirits. The children had so much fun and laughter whilst learning a new skill.

The week was rounded off with a church service that was very well attended and whilst the picnic plans had to be altered and scaled back, we still managed to plant the tree and time capsule to complete our wonderful week.

We hope the children appreciate the photograph they have been given to commemorate the anniversary and it will become a keepsake for them to look back on in years to come.
